Dear Church Family, words cannot always be found to express true appreciation. We are so fortunate to be associated with so many exceptional people. We have such fond memories of our loved one and know he will be dearly missed, but the caring sympathy we have received by our church family has helped ease our sorrow. Thank you for the cards, calls, visits, food, many acts of kindness, but most of all for your prayers during this difficult time. God bless you all as we have truly been blessed. —Ellis and Linda Fincher

Lenten Chorus I Come With Joy LAND OF REST
I come with joy to meet my Lord, Forgiven, loved, and free,
In awe and wonder to recall His life laid down for me.
I come with joy to meet my Lord, forgiven, loved and free,
The life of Jesus to recall, His love laid down for me.

Call to Worship Jeff Harris
God hovered over the void and breathed life into dust.
God created in the wilderness.
The Israelites wandered in the desert for forty years.
The Israelites found God in the wilderness.
Jesus said “no” to the tempter time and time again.
Jesus claimed his identity in the wilderness.
We grow in the wilderness. We learn in the wilderness.
God is with us—before, through, and after the wilderness.
Fill us with wonder. Fill us with awe.
Fill us with your Spirit.
Remember that you belong to God.

Exodus 6:1-8 Liam Jackson

Then the Lord said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: Because of my mighty hand he will let them go; because of my mighty hand he will drive them out of his country.”

God also said to Moses, “I am the Lord. I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name the Lord I did not make myself fully known to them.

I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, where they resided as foreigners.

Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.

“Therefore, say to the Israelites: ‘I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.

I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment.

I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God.

Then you will know that I am the Lord your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.

And I will bring you to the land I swore with uplifted hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob.

I will give it to you as a possession. I am the Lord.”

Prayers of the People and The Lord’s Prayer Jeff Harris
Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory for ever.
Amen.
